Founder Biography

NATHANIEL JEROME ROMEO FELL III • FOUNDER & PRESIDENT

A builder by trade and by conviction, Nathaniel Jerome Romeo Fell III founded Romeo Community Housing Initiative Foundation to turn decades of hands-on construction experience into stable, dignified homes for families who need them most.

Background

- 16+ years building homes; roughly 8 years of specialized tile work.
- Deep, practical understanding of what it takes to design, build, and finish quality housing efficiently.
- Colorado-focused mission driven by family, hardship, faith, legacy, and housing justice.

Why This Mission

Nathaniel has seen firsthand how unstable housing keeps families from getting ahead. His vision pairs affordability with self-sufficiency — energy-efficient, community-centered neighborhoods where families can put down roots, lower their cost of living, and build long-term security. He is committed to a phased, disciplined approach: build credibility and capacity first, then land, then homes.

Approach to Leadership

Operating lean and largely alone in the formation stage, Nathaniel is assembling an advisory network, formal governance, and a grant-readiness system so the Foundation can responsibly receive and deploy working capital and philanthropic support. He leads with realism — nothing is overpromised, and every advanced concept is framed as subject to engineering, permitting, funding, and approvals.
